

Your first World Cup-season money idea map.

A compact starter for turning football attention into AI-assisted social content, affiliate angles, niche pages, and lightweight products. No official affiliation, no guaranteed-income claims, just practical directions to test.

PLAY 1

Faceless football explainers

Turn match-day questions into 30-second scripts, AI visuals, captions, and repeatable posts.

PLAY 2

Player storyline reels

Use public narratives around legacy, speed, flair, pressure, records, and fan debates.

PLAY 3

Football affiliate pages

Route attention into fan gear, creator tools, watch-party products, newsletters, or guides.

Hot niche filter

LANE	WHY FANS SHARE	MONEY ROUTE
GOAT debates	Identity, emotion, stats	Newsletter, sponsor, guide
Skill edits	Flair, remix culture	Creator tools, templates
Fan products	Buying intent + events	Affiliate, bundles
Match explainers	People want context fast	Ads, newsletter, paid pack

Your first workflow

1. Pick one lane and one platform.
2. Collect 10 current football questions or debates.
3. Write 5 hooks and produce 3 posts in one format.
4. Track saves, comments, profile clicks, and link clicks.

The goal is not one viral post. The goal is finding a format you can repeat for a week.

Six hooks you can test today

The hidden reason this match moment spread so fast...

I would build a football page around this one debate.

Three content angles from one player storyline.

What most fans miss when comparing two legends.

A 7-day football content sprint with no face reveal.

The boring football niche where affiliate links make sense.
